

Distribution Opportunities

Multiple ways distributors can bring Wistudi to market

Platform Licensing

- For schools and organisations
- Create and publish their own content
- Use as a teaching and presentation tool

Co-Created Content

- Built with EdTech partners
- Interactive lessons, Flows and XP Videos
- Partner technology embedded inside

Custom Content Production

- Curriculum and course development
- Supplementary and printable resources
- Content created and delivered for clients

Wistudi can be distributed as a platform, as part of a content package, or as a custom content solution.

How Distributors Work with Wistudi

Flexible commercial arrangements to support different sales opportunities.

1

Wholesale Licensing & Resale

Purchase Wistudi licences at partner rates and resell them to schools, teams and organisations at your own commercial price.

2

On-Demand Resale

Secure a customer or contract first, then purchase the required Wistudi licences. No advance commitment is required.

3

Partner-Led Packages

Facilitate licensing for educational packages co-created with specialist EdTech partners, such as NoraClass, combining their content and technology with Wistudi.

4

Local Merchant of Record (B2C)

Act as the authorised local seller for purchases made directly on Wistudi, managing payments, invoicing and settlement, subject to applicable requirements.

One distributor. Multiple revenue opportunities.

Distributors can participate in one or several commercial models depending on their capabilities.

Bringing Opportunities to Market

Wistudi brings the platform and partner opportunities. Distributors help turn these into local business.

Wistudi Brings

- Publishing platform
- AI-assisted content production
- Specialist EdTech partnerships

Distributor Facilitates

- Local sales
- Licensing and resale
- Customer onboarding

Market Opportunities

- Schools and institutions
- EdTech partners
- Teams and creators

Platform + Partners + Distributor = Local Market Execution